

LIFE CALL, DURHAM

God knows us and calls us. He calls every Christian to serve him in different ways.

- Are you considering your vocation?
- Is God calling you to explore your sense of call?
- Do you feel a call to ordained ministry?
- Are you interested in licensed lay ministry (reader) training?
- Have you thought about pastoral ministry or lay chaplaincy?
- Do you have a call to the religious life?
- Do you want to know more about Church Army?

To book a place for Saturday 19th November
10am - 3pm
at Brancepeth Church
please contact:

Refreshments and lunch will be provided. Please let Pam have any dietary requirements when booking.

There should be no difficulty parking.

There'll be a range of speakers through the day who minister in these areas who will have lots of helpful information. There'll also be time and space to ask questions and to pray!

Book your place and join us for a great day hearing about vocations - there'll be lots of information and it's an ideal opportunity to hear more about a life serving God.
